FOREWORD

Whenever one of these old hymns is sung in church or Sunday school a deeper emotion wells up in us all and a more intense religious fervor seems to descend upon us. Until now we have had to depend upon memory alone to sing them, and when the minister could not "line" them for us some older brother or sister would undertake to lead them. All these older ones will soon have passed over the border and very few of the present generation know these songs. They know the tunes and a verse here and there so that they can join in when some one else leads, but they do not know them well enough to continue singing them in church when the old folk have passed on.

There are many beautiful collections of these songs, but all with accompaniments too difficult for the average person to play at sight, and so we present this volume as a hymn-book with the music as simple as possible, hoping that it will be used in church and home and school, preserving to us this precious heritage.

The lines of these hymns are of unequal length, and while we have selected for the music the best known verse, the words of the other verses must be adjusted to the music with the greatest freedom by the individual singer. The natural sense of rhythm of the old folk found no difficulty in doing this, and so we have not attempted to bring the words into proper alignment with the music, but give them verbatim as we have heard them sung.

We offer this book with the hope that in these songs the human heart will continue to find expression for its deepest emotions of joy, of sorrow, of inspiration and that exaltation of the soul which gave them the name — spirituals.

Oh! yes, I want to go.

She landed Isaac and Jacob, and don't you want to go?
She landed Isaac and Jacob, and don't you want to go?

2 Jesus Went on Man's Bond*

My God said in cre - a - tion If we make man he will sin, Christ said if he break the law I'll bring him back a - gain. Je - sus went on man's bond, Went on man's bond,
Come all the way from Heav - en down, And went on man's bond.

When man had broken God's high law
Was on the sinking train,
Christ opened the book of seven seals
And went on man's bond.

* Printed on small sheet — sold through the country in recent years, by travelling Troubadour.

Jesus Went on Man's Bond

While reading the book of seven seals
In reading the names he said,
Four thousand and four years
I'll go on man's bond.

While hanging on the cross
The blood came streaming down,
I promised just four thousand years
I'd go on man's bond.

Old John was taking copline
Placed in a kettle of oil,
The Angel from heaven descended
And the oil refused to boil.

You read about Paul and Silas,
Those boys were prison bound jail;
Before day when the cry was made
The jail came easing down.

While praying in the garden of Gethsemane
The sweat was running down,
I promised justice four thousand years
I go on man's bond.

He came to the river of Jordan,
Baptised by his cousin John,
And now he is sitting in glory
And is yet on man's bond.

John baptised in Jordan,
Baptised God's only Son;
When he got through baptising
He did not sprinkle one.

The Gospel Train

Verse
The Gos - pel train am a - com - ing, I hear it just at hand, I hear the car wheels mov - ing, Come a - run - ing through the land.
Chorus
Get on board, lit - tle chil -dren, Get on board, lit - tle chil-dren, Get on board, lit - tle chil - dren, There's room for ma - ny - a more.

I hear the bell and whistle,
She's coming 'round the curve,
Putting on her steam and power,
And straining every nerve.

She's coming over the mountain
By river and by lake,
King Jesus is her Captain,
Controlling steam and brake.

She's nearing now the Station,
Oh! Sinner, don't be vain,
But come and get your ticket
And be ready for the train.

No signal for another train
To follow on the line,
Oh! Sinner, you're forever left,
If you get left behind.

The Gospel Train

I think she'll make a little halt,
And stand upon the line,
And give you all a chance to go,
And yet she'll make her time.

The fare is cheap and all can go,
The rich and poor are there,
No second class on board this train,
No difference in the fare.

There's Moses, Norah and Abraham,
And all the Prophets too,
They is all of them on board this train,
Oh! what a Heavenly crew!

There where my Saviour bled and died,

Burning up God's wilderness,
Wonder how long before the trumpet going to sound.
